had built high expectations in aiding in to win the campaign.
According to the story, General Altitus was summoned to the presence of Emperor and asked whether the ins had not been sent as stated. The fortunate officer, after a painful scene, d to acknowledge that he had diseved orders.

ALEXIEFF WILL COMMAND FLEET

PARIS, April 15.-The St. Petersburg correspondent of the "Echo de Paris" telegraphs the following:

At 3 o'clock yesterday the Emperor telegraphed to Viceroy Alexieff, ordering him to go to Port Arthur immediately, and assume command of the squadron, pending the appointment of Vice Admiral Makaroff's successor. The viceroy started last night. The correspondent adds that the Emperor, when reading the dispatch from peror, when reading the dispatch from Rear Admiral Gregorovitch, commandant of Port Arthur, announcing the loss of the Petropavlovsk, turned pale. He was much moved, and did not speak for several minutes. Then he asked a lady-in-waiting to inform the Empress, who burst into tears. His majesty said: "God has willed that the Yenesel should perish by touching a mine, and that the Boyarin should be demaged. Now Providence, whose designs are inscrutable, has willed also to deprive us of the Petropavlovsk and the brave men aboard her."

CZAR NICHOLAS TO GO TO FRONT

BERLIN, April 15.-The catastrophe to the Petropavlovsk has created a tre-mendous sensation here, and full details are eagerly awaited.

"Lokal Anzeiger's" Paris correspondent says the Petropavlovsk was torpedoed, but other journals still stick to the mine theory. Able experts are beginning to be of the opinion that float-ing mines are an unsatisfactory means of defense. The present war has shown on two occasions that they may be equally dangerous to both belligerents.

The Roosevelt Veterans' Club held its A well-known naval critic. Count Redenglow, in the "Tageblatt" says: "Though it has yet to be determined whether the floating mine was Russia's or Japan's, the probability is it was one set by the defenders which currents or the pressure of melting ice had driven into the fairway. The loss to the Russian fleet is considerable, but almost insignificant in comparison with that occasioned by the death of Admiral Makaroff, who in his brief command had already infused new life into the forces he led."

The Roosevelt Veterans' Club held its Mashington, and her party of American nurses, who left here six weeks ago, reach Japan they will not remain there, as first anticipated, but will take ship at once for Korea. The first number of the program was an interesting speech by Col. B. F. Bingham on "The Reason Why the Day Was a Memorable One." He told of the war and of several other things that happened on the 18th of April, and that should be remembered today.

The Grand Army Musical Union sang and was received heartly. Solos were given by the following: F. W. Slebold, Elsie Worth, Arthur E. Middleton, Richard Backing, James E. Cogan, Mrs. Mote, W. A. Morsell, and Jules Aveilhe. Prof. Griffith pleased the people with his whistling and a cornet solo. Arthur Yundt gave several musical selections with his mandolin and violin. Ola and Minnie Emmner gave a fancy Gance. After the entertalament refreshments were served.

The Republican campaign in the District was begun in earnest last night. Fifteen meetings were held in various parts of the city. In the southwest, the boom for Richardson and Poe took a decidedly upward turn, and it is now running the Simmons-Chase ticket closely. The Rev. Dr. P. A. Wilbanks, of the Virginia Avenue Baptist Church, presided at meetings, and announced their intention to work for the Richardson-Poe ticket. The Southwestern Citizens' Association also indorsed the ticket.

There was a split in the Reyburn-Lee faction, and R. H. Key, who has been the campaigning manager of the faction, joined the Richardson-Poe party with all of his followers. Luke J. Kearney and his party have also indorsed the party.
